

SEASONAL GREETINGS

Princess Njemanze-Nebob salutes Imolites!

Tis the season; alleluiah alleluiah our savior is born.

As we all celebrate the birth of our messiah, let us all return to His basic teaching on earth.

A teaching of hope, forgiveness, peace and the greatest being love for one another especially our neighbors.

At my dinner table on Christmas day, I couldn't help but think about most of us, not just some that has no table to sit on nor food to eat in celebration of the birth of our Christ Jesus.

I do not have gold or silver to offer them but they can be sure I have the greatest gift of life that is priceless and powerful, the wonderful gift of prayers. I pray for all of you every day.

My family and I sincerely wish every citizen of our beautiful state prosperity, hope, peace and love in the New year.

Let us package our anger, hate and differences together and send it off with 2013.

Our God in Imo State is a very big God and will never let us see shame.

May the New year bring us all hope, courage, patience, understanding, tolerance, peace and love for one another.

Deeply from the bottom of my heart, I say Merry Christmas and Prosperous New year to all of you and may God bless you.
